Application no. 25553/07
Khashuyeva v. Russia

Dear Madam,

I write to inform you that, in a letter of 18 October 2011 received at the Registry on the same date, the Government have requested that the above-mentioned case be referred to the Grand Chamber.

That request will be submitted to a panel of five judges of the Grand Chamber, which will decide solely on the basis of the existing case file (Rule 73 § 2 of the Rules of Court) whether or not it satisfies the conditions of Article 43 § 2 of the Convention. The Registrar of the Court will advise you as to how the case will subsequently be dealt with.

Yours faithfully,

Søren Nielsen

Dear Madam

I am writing you that in a letter of 18 October 2011 received at the Registrar on the same date, the Government has requested that the above-mentioned case be referred to the Grand Chamber.

The request will be submitted to a panel of five judges of the Grand Chamber, which will decide solely on the basis of the existing case file (the 15 & 2 of the Grand Court) which are not subject to the provisions of Article 41 & 2 of the Convention. The Registrar of the Court will advise you as to how the case will subsequently be dealt with.

Yours faithfully,

Bank of Montreal
